Hardware Department.Under date of Nov. 7, Willett & Gray report total stocks and efforts of sugar as showing a visible supplyAt the end of the first week in November the European market seemed to be firmer both for paper contracts and for real beet sugar. Cables to European representatives in New York stated that bids of 10c. c. and 1. to New York (equal 4.01c. for centri-fugals) might lead to business for prompt shipment, but—nothing below that was not practicable. Among several causes for the firmness in Europe it was stated that the weather wasHeavy selling and low prices pre-valled on the New York stock exchange on Saturday. Steel and Union Pacific and Rearing railways recovered but copper stocks continued heavy and acted as a drag. There were large sales of distillers along with rumors of possible suspension of dividends.L. D. Timmons, formerly manager of the late Hawaiian Star, and one of the best-known newspapermen in the territory, has accepted a position with the Elele store in the capacity of bookkeeper. Kauai's temple of fashion is to be congratulated on securing the services of such a competent man.—Garden Island.On the 7th inst Cuban sugar was being offered in New York at 2 1/2-16c, c. and f. for December (3.80c), 2 1/4c. for January (3.61c) and 2 1/8c. for February-March (3.48c), but buyers still withheld from buying for lower contract prices, although indications pointed to completed business soon on the above basis to some extent.At a meeting of the William Mc-Kinley Lodge No. 8, K. of P., held Saturday night the amalgamation of the three local lodges was unanimously voted upon. Mystic Lodge yet remains to vote, and if the proposition is carried by the organization it will mean that the Knights of Pythias will have one of the strongest fraternal organizations in the islands.A new ice plant, that will double the capacity of ten tons a day of the present one, has been imported from Omaha by the Hilo Electric Light Company. Its installation will put an end to the shipments of ice from Honolulu to Hilo, amounting to about 100 tons a month. Further, it will prevent the shortages in the supply of ice to the Japanese fishermen which have been frequent.Discussing the election, the Financial World (New York and Chicago) quotes Wilson's statement in his speech of acceptance—that tariff reductions must be made so that business would not be disturbed or disorganized—with this comment: "The only fair interpretation that can be placed upon this statement is that the President-elect will not permit Congress to rush a tariff bill through sim-
